Funeral and interment took place at Friendship Church.

CUNNINGHAM NOTES.

Mrs. Percy L. Beam will leave Wednesday to attend the Connectional Convention of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society which will convene in Birmingham, Ala., April 27th to May 1st. On her return she will stop at Memphis and visit Mrs. L. E. Porter. The Easter program rendered by the children of Sulphur Spring Sunday-School under the direction of Mrs. P. L. Beam was highly approved by the people. The church was nicely decorated. On last Friday night the commencement of the public school was held at St. Paul Baptist Church. The exercises were very entertaining. The teacher, Miss Brunetta Roberts, had taken great pains in preparing the programme. During her service as a teacher here for the past eight months she has discharged her duty most efficaciously. During the commencement Miss Lorena Barker, of Clarksville, was the guest of Mrs. Eliza Wiley. Mrs. Izora D. Stegall and Mrs. Mary Roberts, of Clarksville, were the guests of Mrs. Percy L. Beam. Misses Perkins, Mary Hatcher, Minnie Hatcher and Lillie Roberts, of Clarksville, were the guests of Mrs. Louisa Rippey.

STEVENSON (ALA.) NOTES.

The concert given by the Odd Fellows Hall last Tuesday night was quite a success. The brass band of young boys played for the occasion. The concert will be repeated Thursday, April 27th. Several of our ladies and young men took an active part in the affair. J. H. Hurt, the band master, is preparing a choir for the Odd Fellows' annual services the second Sunday in May. The organist, Miss Sallie Austin; manager and instructor, J. H. Hurt. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. M. Jones, of Huntsville, Ala. Dr. W. J. Astrapp and Mr. Luther Cummings, of South Pittsburg, passed through here last Sunday en route for Nashville and Memphis, working in the interest of the K. of P. Lodge. They stopped over here waiting for their next train, taking dinner with Mr. H. V. Hancock. Mr. W. A. Daniel, of Bridgeport, and Mr. R. J. Stevens, took a trip to Scottsboro last Sunday, working in the interest of the K. of P. Lodge. Mr. H. W. Young went to Focklers last Sunday. Every Negro should have the Globe in his home. You read the other papers, why not read your own? Mrs. J. H. Hurt and Mrs. Dora Lee Smith will take a trip to Nashville in the near future. Success to the Globe.

CENTERVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Thomas Lowe and wife, of Nashville, are here visiting friends and relatives. They will leave in a few days for Louisville, where they hope to make their future home. The $200 rally at the A. M. E. Church on last Sunday resulted in the raising of $216.30. Club No. 1, H. Turner Crosby, captain, raised $71.20; Club No.

2, B. M. Hornbeak, captain, raised $70.30; Club No. 3, Robert Wells, captain, raised $74.80. This was one of the most successful rallies that has ever been conducted here. The members and friends of the church have put on their building clothes, and before many moons they will be seen in their new church. The presiding elder, Rev. H. F. Smith, en route from Gray's Bend Sunday, stopped over and preached for Rev. Shelby Sunday night. We are always very proud to have the Elder with us. Mrs. Myra Wells, who has been sick with tuberculosis for some time, died Sunday night. Dan Cupid made a flying trip here Sunday, and while here pierced his arrows into the heart of Mr. O. L. Vanlier and Mrs. Lewis Phillips. Rev. Shelby is ill. All hope to see him out soon. On Saturday night the school will render the play "Pauine." Miss Georgia Wells, of Nashville, and Mrs. Allie Haddox, of Spring Hill, were called here on account of the death of Mrs. Myra Wells. Miss Luella George died Tuesday morning. She has been sick for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Turner, of Union City, are here visiting friends and relatives.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

Rosaview, Tenn., was graced with a large number of visitors and friends from Clarksville, Tenn., attendant upon the closing exercises of Rosaview Public School, of which Mrs. Amie Clark is principal. The exercises were of high merit and in presenting each number of the program there was no doubt of the fact that every participant had given his part due thought and practice. After the exercises, the participants from Clarksville were escorted to the beautiful and comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, where all of the delicacies of the season were served. The hospitality of the hostess will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present. The following guests were present: Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson; Mrs. A. E. Greenlaw; Mrs. Annys Steele; Misses Lela Porter, Emma Dabney, Lucy Davis and Mamie Grant; Dr. Robert T. Burt; Dr. S. Jefferson; Messrs. Vivan Dabney, Ligon Metcalf. The following program was rendered: quartette, Misses L. Porter, Emma Dabney, Mesdames Kelly and Greenlaw; invocation, pastor; solo, "Night and Day" by Mrs. A. E. Greenlaw; welcome address, Von Shiner Dinkins; response by Jeanie Jetty Ligon; instrumental duet, Mrs. C. A. Kelly and Miss L. Porter; oration, Rosa L. Ligon; solo, Miss Lucy Davis; oration, Chauncey H. Harris; solo, Mrs. Greenlaw; Good night drill; duet, Mesdames Kelly and Greenlaw; recital, Mrs. Annys Steele; solo, Mr. V. S. Dayney; address to graduates, Dr. Robert T. Burt; solo, Mrs. A. E. Greenlaw; awarding diplomas, Dr. S. Jefferson; quartette, Misses L. Porter and E. Dabney, Mesdames Kelly and Greenlaw. Among some of the white visitors at the Infirmary this week were Mr. and Mrs. Westenberg, Mr. A. J. Clark, Rev. J. B. Cannon, pastor of the Episcopal Church, Lawyer and Mrs. M. Savage. Of the twelve or fourteen operations done in the last six weeks at the Infirmary, all patients have fully recovered. Mrs. H. Martin, of Cumberland City, is at the Infirmary this week. Mrs. Ann Pettus, mother of Rev. Wilkes Pettus died this week and was buried Sunday. Mr. Cox, of Indianola, Miss., was the guest of his son, Dr. R. L. Redmond, this week. Mr. Cox is a banker of this city. Dr. Robert T. Burt, Surgeon-in-chief of the Home Infirmary, has been called to Decatur, Ala., to conduct a clinic for Dr. Willis E. Sters, at his infirmary in that city. The Infirmary nurses are hoping to get a few days' vacation early. Lawyer Settles, of Memphis and Rev. Dr. Coombs, of Nashville, are expected up next week and will be the guests at the Home Infirmary.

PULASKI NOTES.

Dr. J. D. Fowler, of Nashville, visited this town and left on last Saturday. He came to get some data in search of the hook-worm which is giving school children so much trouble. Mrs. Stella Daugherty has so recovered that she returned to Nashville Sunday.

Mrs. Lula Will Hammons left for Nashville last Saturday. Mr. Wash Reynolds died and was buried last Friday. His sister, Mrs. Wm. Henry Patterson, of Nashville, attended the funeral. The Ideal Art Club met at the residence of Mrs. T. P. Turner last Wednesday evening. Much business was transacted. The following new applicants were elected members of the club: Mrs. Addie F. Morrell, Misses Leola Facin and Georgia Malone. A nice literary program was rendered. Each member answered to the roll call by reciting a selection from Paul Laurence Dunbar. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. E. C. Dangerfield, May 3, 1911. Mrs. M. A. Turner left for the city of Rocks Tuesday morning. While in the city the Endowment Board of O. O. C. will hold its quarterly meeting at 410 Cedar street. Mrs. Esther Bryant has opened up her restaurant in front of the Turner building on North Main street. Mr. E. T. Johnson, the insurance agent, and several others are taking meals with Mrs. Bryant. Several young men left Sunday to work on the L. & N. R. R., near Louisville, Ky. Miss Harper visited the country Sunday to see her brother's wife, who is quite sick. Rev. D. Howard preached to his congregation at Providence Sunday, and his pulpit at Beulah Baptist Church was filled by Rev. J. M. Gentry. Rev. M. C. Skillern, Rev. L. Howard and Brother Minor Carter left to spend a few days in the city of Nashville this week. The revival which began last week at the First Baptist Church is progressing nicely, and several have already professed a hope in Christ. Rev. A. J. James, the popular pastor of the First Baptist Church (Mt. Zion), has always had a success in his meetings numerically, spiritually and financially, and whenever Big Daddy is in town you may expect a big crowd at each of his services. A big phosphate plant is being erected near here at Ubales, which is expected to assist in booming the town and the people who will work may earn better wages and make times better. Mrs. Laura Patrick went to Nashville to have her eyes treated. Dr. J. C. Gant went to Nashville to have an operation performed on one of his patients. She was a Mrs. Reynolds, who resides near Wales. The operation was a very dangerous one but it is hoped that she may survive. Dr. Gant's superior skill in diagnosing the case puzzled the most skilled surgeons. The knife and the natural eye of the surgeon only corroborated what the Doctor said was the condition of the
